IHGF Delhi Fair marks a significant milestone in October

The IHGF Delhi Fair will celebrate its 60th edition this autumn. Founded in 1995, the show – reputed as the 'world's largest gathering of handicraft exhibitors under one roof' – continues to evolve in response to global sourcing trends, delivering a future-ready, buyer-focused trade platform.

Strongly supported by leading manufacturer exporters in India and a thriving international community treating India as their preferred sourcing hub, the forthcoming 60th edition will feature more than 3,000 exhibitors from across India, representing key product segments in home, lifestyle, fashion, furnishings, furniture, gifts and interiors.

IHGF Delhi Fair attracts thousands of global buyers, including importers, retail chains, department stores, wholesalers, designers and buying agents, drawn by its variety, customization capabilities and competitive pricing. Successive editions have consistently seen trade visitors and sourcing representation from well over 100 countries.

With increased focus on eco-conscious manufacturing, handcrafted value additions and artisanal creativity, this edition 'will set new benchmarks for international trade fairs,': buyers can expect expressive surface finishes, emotionally resonant designs and trend-forward collections that blend tradition with modernity.

The show boasts 16 categories including home decor and accents; home furnishings; carpets and rugs; textiles and linen; gifts; lighting; kitchen and dinnerware; cane, bamboo, paper and eco-friendly products; Christmas and festive decor; bathroom accessories; outdoor and gardens and furniture and interiors, displayed across 16 halls and 900 mart showrooms at the India Expo Centre.

Visitors will also benefit from a dedicated mobile app for seamless navigation and scheduling; hospitality lounges; refreshment areas; cultural showcases and interactive zones as they feast in a celebration of Indian craftsmanship, design and global collaboration.

Subscribe

And receive a glossy copy of our magazine straight to your door