The IHGF Delhi Fair will return as a physical show next month.

The 52nd edition of the event will return to the India Expo Centre & Mart from 28-31 October, with more than 1,500 exhibitors taking part.

‘Spaced out displays and eased visitation will offer a unique and safe premium sourcing environment that would give buyers unprecedented visiting experience and value for time, says a show spokesman.

‘Expect new product offerings in a wide variety of product categories in line with the lifestyle changes given the new normal. Not to miss the ever popular soft and hard goods, that exude the latest international design trends alongside those that boast of unique traditional workmanship & techniques. With 12 well defined display segments, the show offers the varieties of creations, diverse in inspiration, processes and materials. Art metalware, Epnsware, wood carvings, furniture and accessories, glassware, fashion jewellery & accessories, hand-printed textiles, embroidered goods, lace, toys, houseware, decorative, gifts and general handicrafts, home textiles and home accessories, candles and incense, pottery, terracotta and ceramics, nautical instruments, Christmas and floral decorations, handmade paper products, crafts made of leather, lacquer, marble, etc. are just some of them.

‘Eco-friendly and sustainable lines include tradition inspired urbane lifestyle assortments in natural materials and seasonal derivatives like hemp, wool, silk, jute, bamboo, kora grass, river reed and burlap.

‘Added attractions like theme pavilions, trend areas, craft demonstrations, ramp presentations and knowledge seminars, besides buyer lounges and refreshment zones would make attending the show a truly wholesome experience. A complete road map for safe and convenient visitation is in place to ensure a return to the inimitable and vibrant physical fair as exhibitors eagerly wait to show their collections and welcome buyers.’
