IGHF Delhi Fair to go digital as COVID cases soar in India

<< View more news

In light of recent developments with the second surge of COVID in India, the organisers of IHGF Delhi Fair have announced an all virtual edition to ensure health & safety of its buyers as well as exhibitors. The physical mode of the show is cancelled.

EPCH, show organisers, have opted to stall the show in favour of a digital edition to continue sourcing opportunities for buyers.

The show, which will take place online from 19-23 May, 2021, will offer products from an array of categories, including Home, Lifestyle, Fashion, Textiles, Gifting and Furniture. The edition will feature 750 Indian manufacturers and a choice of more than 2000 products. There will also be trend areas, craft demonstrations, ramp presentations
