

TRADE SHOWS

Virtual IHGF Delhi Fair set for July 13-18

Home Accents Today Staff // News & Commentary

June 30, 2020

The Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts India announced that the IHGF Delhi Fair will take place virtually July 13-18 as a way to provide business despite the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

Buyers interested in attending can connect at ihgfdelhifair.in.

With focus on sustainability, fair trade and innovations, IHGF Delhi Fair will present 1,500-plus exporters. A choice of more than 2,000 products and 300-plus trend specific design developments will be available, encompassing the supply chain of home fashion and utility, collectibles, gifting and fashion accessories, would spread out in the virtual space.

Categories at the show include furniture and accessories, housewares, lamps and lighting, carpets and rugs, holiday décor, outdoor furnishings, candles and more.

Theme pavilions, trend areas, webinars, craft demonstrations and presentations are also among the upcoming show's highlights.

Home Accents Today provides industry news, product trends and introductions, exclusive industry research, consumer data, store operations solutions, trade show news and much more.