NEW DELHI – 19th May’ 2021 – The 51st edition of virtual IHGF of Delhi fair 2021 was inaugurated today with message from Shri Narendra Modi, Hon’ble Prime Minister of India, who conveyed his best wishes for the success of 51st edition of IHGF Delhi Fair. In his message he appreciated the richness and diversity of our handicrafts which has been a unique feature of our nation’s culture and heritage. Generations of artisans and craftsmen from different regions have enhanced the appeal, adding colour and vibrancy to the products. He further mentioned that the fast changing times, powered by digital technology have helped the handicrafts sector to further enhance its resilience. The up scaling of durable, user friendly products will help the sector expand and deepens its outreach, informed Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Director General EPCH

While inaugurating the fair Shri Ravi K. Passi, Chairman-EPCH welcomed everyone to the virtual platform in order for over 700 exhibitors of home, lifestyle fashion, furniture and textile products to transact business with a large number of overseas buyers, domestic volume buyers and buying representatives. He mentioned that with an extensive publicity campaign undertaken by EPCH a large number of overseas buyers, wholesalers and retailers have already registered to visit the show.

Shri U.P. Singh Secretary (Textiles), Govt. of India and Shri Shantmanu, Development Commissioner (Handicrafts), Ministry of Textiles, Govt. of India also extended their wishes on the organization of 51st edition of IHGF-Delhi fair virtually amidst Corona crisis reflecting the indomitable spirit of the handicraft exporting fraternity to continue furthering the efforts to strengthen the Handicrafts Sector.

Shri U.P. Singh, Secretary (Textiles) welcomed all the overseas buyers and exhibitors to have a very successful show and appreciated EPCH for holding the several virtual editions of IHGF during the current pandemic since June’2020. He further said that this edition of the virtual fair will help in giving a much needed push to the exports of handicrafts and generating additional employment in this cottage sector of Indian economy.

Shri Shantmanu, Development Commissioner (Handicrafts), in his address welcomed all the buyers and exhibitors including artisans from North Eastern States and Jammu & Kashmir and urged them to take benefit of the sourcing opportunity provided by this virtual platform.
