Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday said the up-scaling of durable, user friendly handicraft products will help the sector expand and deepen its outreach.

While inaugurating the 51st edition of virtual IHGF of Delhi fair, he appreciated the richness and diversity of India's handicrafts, textiles ministry said in a statement.

PM Modi said that the fast changing times, powered by digital technology have helped the handicrafts sector to further enhance its resilience.

The virtual fair is being held from May 19-23.

“Generations of artisans and craftsmen from different regions have enhanced the appeal, adding colour and vibrancy to the products,” the ministry said, quoting Modi.

As per the statement, Modi said that the fast changing times, powered by digital technology have helped the handicrafts sector to further enhance its resilience.

“This edition of the virtual fair will help in giving a much needed push to the exports of handicrafts and generating additional employment in this cottage sector of Indian economy,” the ministry said, quoting textile secretary U P Singh.
